

PRESENT YOUR PHD RESEARCH IN 3 MINUTES: WILL YOU TAKE UP THIS CHALLENGE?

---

The Higher Education Commission is organising its second National Competition on PhD Presentation in April-May 2020 to give opportunity to PhD students to present their research within a timeframe of 3 minutes in a concise and simple manner to a lay audience.

Throughout this contest, participants will be able to develop their presentation and research communication skills and win interesting prizes as follows:

1st Prize: Rs 30,000

2nd Prize: Rs 20,000

3rd Prize: Rs 10,000

All finalists will likewise be granted a Certificate of Distinguished Presenter and a medallion.

The competition will take place in two phases: preliminary rounds followed by the finals.

The eligibility criteria for participation in the Competition is posted under Documentations and Guidelines. In case you satisfy same, we invite you to register and submit an abstract, of not more than 500 words of the research undertaken towards your PhD thesis including, amongst others, the title, objectives, methodology and the results/outcomes (if any) of the research.

Kindly consult our website for the online registration which will be opened around 02 March 2020. The closing date for submission of abstract/registration is 16 March 2020. Late submissions/email or hard copies of the abstract will not be accepted.

Please note that the HEC will organise mandatory training sessions to enable participants to present their works in the best possible manner. Information regarding the training will be posted on the HEC website and communicated to participants who qualify for the competition.
